

WILLIAM ROSEBURG

ROOM 1002-3.

BANK FOR SAVINGS BLDG.

PITTSBURGH PA. July 16th, 1904.
C.

Mary O. H. Darlington

P. O. Box 317, Pittsburgh, Pa.

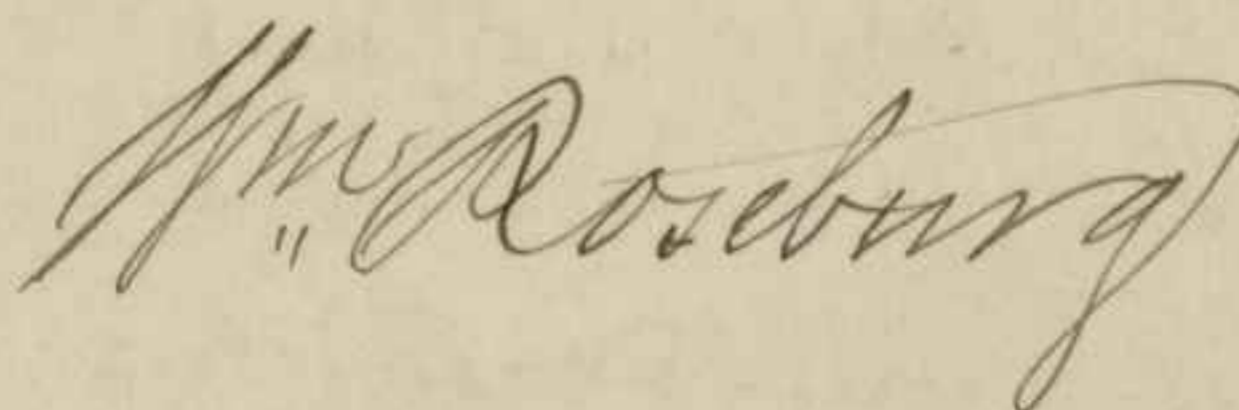

Dear Madam:-

The undersigned, after fifty-six (56) years service in the Bank of Pittsburgh in various capacities and for the past forty years its Cashier and Vice-President, has severed his connection with that institution officially, and hereafter proposes to engage in the business of a Broker, dealing in first class investment securities, bonds, mortgages, good and reliable bank stocks and bonds issued by corporations of which I have personal knowledge, and I can assure my friends that no securities will be offered them in which I would not willingly invest my own money.

By long service with the Bank of Pittsburgh and my intimate acquaintance and relations with its stockholders, depositors and business, should prove a sufficient guaranty of my attention to the interest of my patrons and integrity in dealings.

My office on and after July 1st, 1904, will be Room 1002--1003, Bank for Savings Building, Fourth Avenue and Smithfield Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM ROSEBURG
PITTSBURGH, PA.

PITTSBURGH PA. July 16, 1904.

Mary O. O'Hara Darlington

P. O. Box 317, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Madam:-

The undersigned, after fifty-six (56) years service in the Bank of Pittsburgh in various capacities and for the past forty years its Cashier and Vice-President, has severed his connection with that institution officially, and hereafter propose to engage in the business of a Broker, dealing in first class investment securities, bonds, mortgages, good and reliable bank stocks and bonds issued by corporations of which I have personal knowledge, and I can assure my friends that no securities will be offered them in which I would not willingly invest my own money.
By long service with the Bank of Pittsburgh and my intimate acquaintance and relations with its stockholders, depositors and business, should prove a sure-guaranty of my attention to the interest of my patrons and integrity in dealing.

My office on and after July 1st, 1904, will be Room 1002-1003, Bank for Savings Building, Fourth Avenue and Sutherland Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Very truly yours,

William Roseburg