

Rebecca & L.

Tasso & his sister.

Dante & Beatrice

The praying Child in the Peris.

Der Taucher.

Fridolin.

The Maid of Orleans.

1 haranguing; 2 in his flight; 3 recognizing his sisters
4 prophesying; 5 dying; 6 Scene with Isabeau.

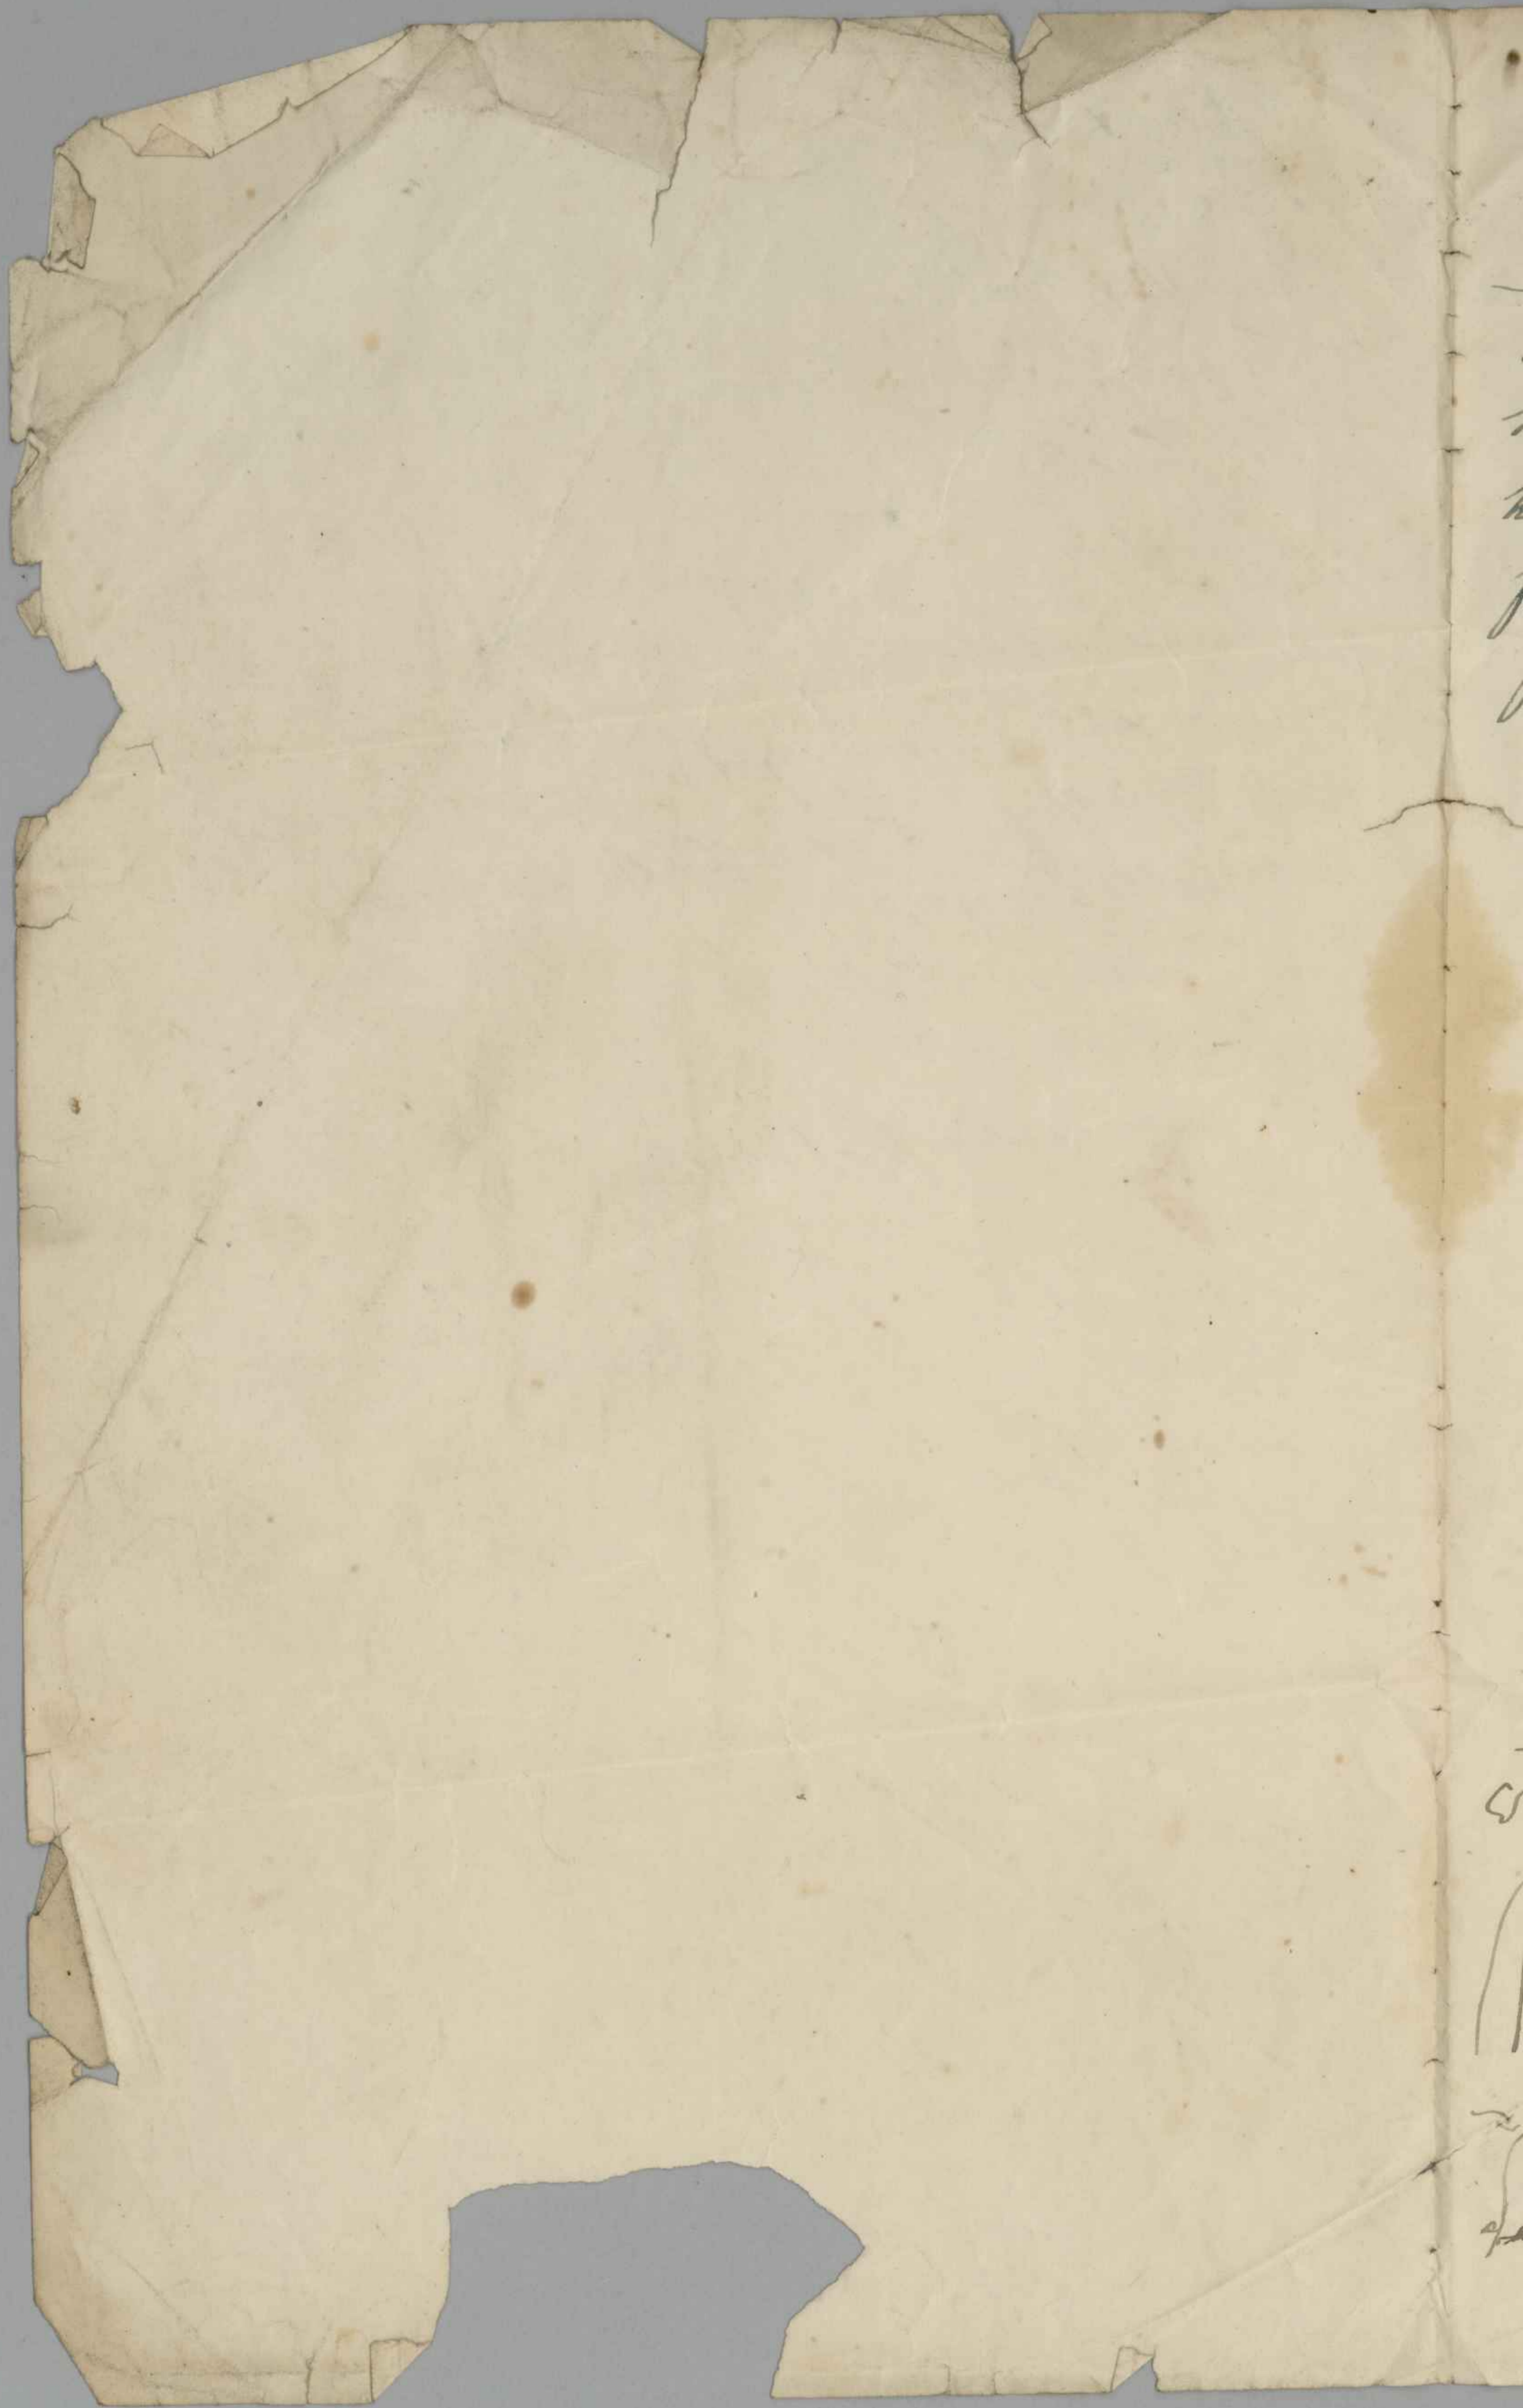

Jephtha's daughter.

Bride of Messina.

Calderon

Darius' Family at his tomb

Adelheid, daughter of Count Hugo v. Egisheim (?), after having learned, that Duke Ernest of Suabia, her beloved father to conduct her to the monastery of Ottilienberg so beautiful that, "whose every hope has not yet died, must will return at the very gate." There she washes her eyes with the miraculous spring, to heal her from all earthly pains & said farewell to the world!

Duke Ernest of Count Werner behold Adelheid passing by on the Rhine.

Nibelungen

Queen Brunhild & Queen Kriemhild contend about the procedure into the church.

Nibelungen

Siegfried's wounds bleed at the approach of Hagen his assassin.