For a Special Lecture Series Luncheon on Sickle Cell Disease

Sponsored by UPMC Center for Inclusion in Health Care

Thursday, February 11th ~ 11:30 A.M.-1:30 P.M.

UPMC Herberman Conference Center
5150 Centre Avenue, Room 202C
Shadyside

A diverse workforce has become a high priority for many businesses, driven by both social and market forces. Research proves that 1 in every 500 African Americans carry the Sickle Cell trait. This informative session will increase awareness of the disease which affects more than 60,000 Americans who require frequent recurrent medical intervention or transfusions which may affect their performance in the workplace.

Please join UPMC Center for Inclusion in Health Care and fellow Chamber members as we cordially welcome guest speaker Lakshmanan Krishnamurti, MD, Director of Hemoglobinopathies, Hematology/Oncology and Blood and Marrow Transplantation at UPMC Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh.

Please RSVP by February 1, 2010
