DORIS CARSON WILLIAMS, PRESIDENT

August 2003

This monthly newsletter is prepared solely for members, supporters, and sponsors of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania.

August will be a busy month for your Chamber Office as we prepare for our upcoming programs and the fall schedule.

The June PowerBreakfast meeting with Dr. John Thompson was informative, as he presented the improvements in performance measures & introduced Paula Castleberry & discussed her role on improving business opportunities.

The Special July 25th Breakfast Meeting with Secretary for Community & Economic Development Dennis Yablonsky gave insight on the state's current budget process & the various programs to benefit small businesses within his department. He also highlighted his commitment to restructuring & improving the performance of the Pa. Minority Business Develop. Auth.

The August 18th Unified Certification Box Lunch Program is designed to inform all members who are certified or are seeking certification on the proposed unified requirements that will allow your certification to be valid with all levels of government. Harold Levy from Penn Dot will be presenting. Local committee members Cameil Williams & Ed Greene will also be on hand. You should have received info in the mail. Check out our website for details. It's a must do!

September 10th

For Members Only

9:00 AM - Noon

Doing Business with Equitable Resources, Inc. Presidential Roundtable Member-Murry Gerber will welcome everyone & affirm his commitment to the session developed solely for Chamber Members. You will then be introduced to Equitable Resources' procurement personnel, who will present how to do business with Equitable. Call our office & confirm if You plan to attend Your name must be on the list to be admitted. A mailing on the program will be sent out next week.

September 11th

5:00 PM – 6:30 PM

Rivers Club

Candidates Forum for Allegheny County Chief Executive.

Both Jim Roddey & Dan Onorato have confirmed. You are encouraged to attend & ask questions about small business & the future of county govt. Come learn about both candidates.

Beginning October 1st, the new dues structure will take affect. You will receive the new Membership Application with the new dues structure for planning purposes. Membership dues will now be according to your firm's gross revenues. The policy is consistent with other organizations & Chambers of Commerce. Companies now ask about the member's capacity. Providing referrals according to revenue categories takes us out of the guessing game & requirements will be matched to companies appropriately.

You will be receiving a letter on special advertising rates your Chamber has obtained with the Pittsburgh Courier. The rates apply to Regular & Corporate Members.

AFLAC & ChamberChoice have formed a partnership. You will be hearing more about the new benefits that will be available to you in the near future.

Member Neil Barclay is off & running since the Architect has been chosen for the African American Cultural Center. Ai Architects of San Francisco's glass design was chosen for the new facility on Liberty Avenue. The groundbreaking is planned for the fall-2004.

Thank you to all members who responded to the call & helped Members Esther Bush & Glenn Mahone in making the National Urban League Conference a success. It was wonderful to see so many volunteering & registered for the sessions and events. The special joint publication with the Post-Gazette & Member The New Pittsburgh Courier was a first, documenting the growth & performance of our local affiliate products. It was nice to see members billed as sponsors,
