We wish to sincerely thank each member who attended the Annual Meeting. Following a recap of the past year's highlights, members were encouraged to take advantage of the broad base of expertise that is provided from the business community. Our new Banners, designed by GO4 (David Atkins), were presented to the membership. Outgoing Board Members Eric Bruce, Al Merritt, Marimba Millions, & Weida Tucker were honored & presented with a plaque for their contributions to the organization. Chairman Greg Spencer was presented with a plaque & gift for his leadership. Our newly elected Board Members: Chairman-Samuel Stephenson, & New Board Members David Atkins, Herman Jones, & Irvin Williams will take office in September. Mellon Financial Corp., donated copies of There's No Business Like Your Own Business by Pittsburgh's own Gladys Edmunds, to all members in attendance. Then we moved to the Ballroom of the Renaissance Hotel for lunch. Kudos to Member Barbara McMahon for the lovely printed menus. The Principal Keyboard for the Pittsburgh Symphony Patricia Pratts Jennings, was overwhelmed with her gift of a miniature grand piano, designed by her former classmate, Member Oscar Worthy. Tom Usher & Dick Simmons were each presented a plaque & thanked for helping to establish the Chamber's Presidential Roundtable. Speaker John Surma (Chairman-US Steel) discussed the impact of shifting demographics on the firm's future business plans & the role small business plays.

Our Associate/Non-Profit Members had their first of several workshops, beginning with 'Claiming the Room' presented by Yvonne Campos who shared a succinct, to the point presentation on how to approach business leaders with the proper elevator speech. Members Dolly Ellenberg (VP Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh) & Lorene Vinski (VP Pittsburgh Cultural Trust) will present the next customized workshop on Fundraising & Evaluation.
