Candidates Forum

For the first time on the same stage, the leading candidates for the top job in Pennsylvania face off to answer the people. Auditor General Robert Casey, Jr. and Former Philadelphia Mayor, Ed Rendell will address the voters when the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania hosts its Candidates Forum.

This pivotal political platform will focus on issues the African-American business community needs to know:

- What has been your involvement to advance African-American business owners and professionals?*
- What will you do, if elected, to advance African American business owners and professionals moving to the next level of engagement?*

Rod Doss, Editor & Publisher of The New Pittsburgh Courier moderates this enlightening evening.

Also squaring off are the leading candidates for the State Senate: Bonnie DiCarlo and Pittsburgh City Councilman James Ferlo. In the State Representative race, incumbent William R. Robinson & challenger Jake Wheatley, and incumbent Joseph K. Preston and challenger Patrick. Dowd.
