FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

African American Chamber of Commerce to host Mayor Luke Ravenstahl and Members of City Council at September 15th PowerBreakfast Meeting

The African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania will host new Mayor Luke Ravenstahl and the members of Pittsburgh City Council at the Chamber's PowerBreakfast Meeting on Friday, September 15, 2006 at 7:30 AM at the Rivers Club, One Oxford Centre. New Council President Doug Shields will engage the Members in a panel discussion co-facilitated by Mayor Luke Ravenstahl.

The purpose of the meeting is to allow the new administration to share its vision for the city of Pittsburgh and engage the Chamber membership in supporting City Council initiatives. Specifically, City Council members will share information about the committees they are working on, and how the membership of the African American Chamber can be of value to them.

Also in attendance will be Allegheny County Executive Dan Onorato.

The mission of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania is to continuously improve business and professional opportunities for African American business owners and professionals.
