Robert Morris University President, Dr. Gregory G. Dell'Omo, Ph.D., to be Guest Speaker at the African American Chamber of Commerce's PowerBreakfast Meeting

(Pittsburgh, PA) – The African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania will host Dr. Gregory G. Dell'Omo, President of Robert Morris University, as the Guest Speaker at their upcoming PowerBreakfast on Friday, October 20, 2006 at 7:30 AM at the Rivers Club, One Oxford Centre. Dr. Dell'Omo's presentation will focus on various projects that the university is involved in, such as the building of a medical school, and ways in which Chamber members can become involved.

Originally from New Jersey, Dr. Dell'Omo is new to the Pittsburgh area.

The African American Chamber of Commerce holds PowerBreakfast Meetings every month featuring guest speakers from the public, private and government business sectors. The networking opportunities through the PowerBreakfast Meetings provide access to key decision makers previously unavailable to African American Chamber members. The mission of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania is to continuously improve business and professional opportunities for African American business owners and professionals.
