Honorable Dennis Yablonsky, Secretary of Community & Economic Development, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to be Guest Speaker at African American Chamber of Commerce PowerBreakfast

(Pittsburgh, PA – February 9, 2007) The Honorable Dennis Yablonsky, Secretary of Community & Economic Development for the Commonwealth of PA, will be the featured speaker at the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania PowerBreakfast Meeting on Friday, February 16, 2007. The meeting will begin at 7:30 AM and will be held at the Rivers Club, One Oxford Centre. Secretary Yablonsky will begin his presentation with an update on the current programs and initiatives taking place within his Department, followed by a discussion about the Energy Independence Strategy. Afterwards, Chamber members will have the opportunity to ask the Secretary questions about how small business owners can become involved with his Department.

The African American Chamber of Commerce holds PowerBreakfast Meetings every month featuring guest speakers from the public, private and government business sectors. The networking opportunities presented by the PowerBreakfast Meetings provide access to key decision makers previously unavailable to African American Chamber members. The mission of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania is to continuously improve business and professional opportunities for African American business owners and professionals.
