U.S. Commissioner of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Christine Griffin, to be Guest Speaker at African American Chamber of Commerce PowerBreakfast

(Pittsburgh, PA – June 11, 2007) U.S. Commissioner of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Ms. Christine Griffin, will be the featured speaker at the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania PowerBreakfast Meeting on Friday, June 15, 2007. The meeting will begin at 7:30 AM and will be held at the Rivers Club, One Oxford Centre. Commissioner Griffin will update our membership on the Commission's activities within Pennsylvania and offer a national perspective on the EEOC. Afterwards, the Commissioner will respond to questions from our audience.

Commissioner Griffin was nominated by Senator Ted Kennedy and appointed by President George Bush in 2005. She will retain her position throughout the tenure of the next administration. Commissioner Griffin is the head of the L.E.A.D. Initiative, which stands for Leadership for the Employment of Americans with Disabilities.

The African American Chamber of Commerce holds PowerBreakfast Meetings every month featuring guest speakers from the public, private and government business sectors. The networking opportunities presented by the PowerBreakfast Meetings provide access to key decision makers previously unavailable to African American Chamber members. The mission of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania is to continuously improve business and professional opportunities for African American business owners and professionals.
