President & CEO of the August Wilson Center for African American Culture, Neil A. Barclay, to be Guest Speaker at African American Chamber of Commerce PowerBreakfast

(Pittsburgh, PA – February 7, 2008) President & CEO of the August Wilson Center for African American Culture, Neil A. Barclay, J.D., will be the featured speaker at the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania's monthly PowerBreakfast Meeting on Friday, February 15, 2008. The meeting will begin at 7:30 AM and will be held at the Rivers Club, One Oxford Centre. Mr. Barclay will provide a detailed update on the development of the August Wilson Center. He will also discuss with members the process for procuring goods and services. Following Mr. Barclay's presentation, audience members will have the opportunity to ask questions.

The African American Chamber of Commerce holds PowerBreakfast Meetings every month featuring guest speakers from the public, private and government business sectors. The networking opportunities presented by the PowerBreakfast Meetings provide access to key decision makers previously unavailable to African American Chamber members. The mission of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania is to continuously improve business and professional opportunities for African American business owners and professionals.
