Washington County Commissioner to Speak at African American Chamber of Commerce Breakfast

(Pittsburgh, PA – October 12, 2009) Washington County Commissioner J. Bracken Burns will be the featured speaker at the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania PowerBreakfast Meeting on Friday October 16, 2009. The meeting will begin at 7:30 AM and will be held at the Rivers Club, One Oxford Centre. Commissioner Burns will discuss business opportunities in Washington County, and the role he plays in Washington County Government. Afterwards, Commissioner Burns will respond to questions from the audience.

The African American Chamber of Commerce holds PowerBreakfast Meetings every month featuring guest speakers from the public, private and government business sectors. The networking opportunities presented by the PowerBreakfast Meetings provide access to key decision makers previously unavailable to African American Chamber members. The mission of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania is to continuously improve business and professional opportunities for African American business owners and professionals.
