NOVA Chemicals CEO Randy Woelfel to speak at PowerBreakfast Meeting January 20, 2012 Hosted by the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania

(Pittsburgh, PA – January 11, 2012) – Randy Woelfel, CEO, NOVA Chemicals is scheduled to speak during the African American Chamber of Commerce PowerBreakfast Meeting this month. Woelfel will discuss NOVA Chemicals, its directions, and views on the energy opportunity in the region.

Randy Woelfel has served in his current position at NOVA since 2009. He began his career with Shell Oil Company in 1977, and was a key member of the team which helped create Montell Polyolefins in 1995 - today part of LyondellBasell. He subsequently held the positions of President Basell International and President Basell North America. Most recently, Woelfel was Managing Director Energy at the Houston Technology Center and President of bioplastics developer Cereplast, Inc. Woelfel earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical Engineering from Rice University and a Masters in Management from MIT's Sloan School of Business.

NOVA Chemicals develops and manufactures chemicals, plastic resins and end-products. NOVA Chemicals is a wholly owned subsidiary of The International Petroleum Investment Company (IPIC) of the Emirate of Abu Dhabi.

The mission of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania is to continuously improve business and professional opportunities for African American business owners and professionals.
