ALCOSAN Executive Director Arletta Scott Williams to speak
The African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania
Monthly PowerBreakfast Meeting

(Pittsburgh, PA – January 7, 2013) Allegheny County Sanitary Authority (ALCOSAN) provides wastewater treatment services to 83 communities including the City of Pittsburgh. ALCOSAN's 59-acre treatment plant is one of the largest wastewater treatment facilities in the Ohio River Valley, processing up to 250 million gallons of wastewater daily. There are 320,000 residential, commercial and industrial accounts representing a service population of 900,000.

ALCOSAN Executive Director Arletta Scott Williams and her team will present environmental opportunities with the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority.

The mission of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western Pennsylvania is to continuously improve business and professional opportunities for African American business owners and professionals.
